The Junior Assembly Dance.

The entertainments of the week opened Tuesday evening with the Junior Assembly Dance at the Elks' Hall. It was a brilliant social event and reminded one of the old Bourbon Fair hops of years ago. The hall was beautifully decorated and with the gallant young beaux and charming young girls in their handsome gowns, gracefully gliding around the room to the sweet strains of Smittie's music was a scene that will remain with us until the end of time. Those present were:

Garth Fund Beneficiaries.

At the meeting of the Fiscal Court Tuesday the selection of the Garth Fund Commissioners of the beneficiaries for this year were endorsed. We do not know who is to blame for this delayed report, but it does look like these selections should be made before the schools take up, but for some reasons satisfactory to some of the moguls we suppose kept the appointments back until this late hour. It is an injustice to the beneficiaries and to the unsuccessful applicants.

The following is the list of beneficiaries:

OLD BENEFICIARIES:

Bruce Adair, $75; Clarence Bell, $60; Holt Daniel, $60; Woodford Dick, $75; J. Q. Frakes, $75; Wm. Grimes, $100; Orie Heller, $125; James Huffaker, $65; Frank Johnson, $50; Leo Keller, $55; Jesse Kenedy, $60; B. H. Linville, $100; John Lytle, $60; Frank Lennihan, $65; Weaver Neal, $75; A. J. Skillman, Jr., $60; and Harry Stivers, $110; Dan Talbott, $135; Chester Wood, $50.

NEW BENEFICIARIES:

Jesse Case, $50; Wallace Douglas, $60; Fithian Faries, $50; Harry B. Fithian, $75; Willie Harper, $25; James E. Hawes, $50; Lawrence James, $25; Stokley Rion, $50; Robert Rose, $25; and Edwin Sweeney, $100.

The reports of the commissioners recount the progress made by the various beneficiaries, all of whom are students in preparatory schools and colleges. The Commissioners also refer to the discourteous treatment of nine students, who either graduated, or for some cause did not again apply for the fund, in that they made no report of their year's work. There are 19 of the Old and 10 of the new Beneficiaries and a total of $1,965 is appropriated to the 29 students.

MARGOLEN.

One of Ben's Fish Stories.

Everybody knows jolly Ben Downey, who left recently for Texas. While enroute he stopped for a few days with Ed. Overby, an old Paris boy, now located at New Orleans. In a letter to his brother, Embury Downey, he tells of a fish he caught near New Orleans, viz:

"Ed Overby took me out fishing in a small boat. About four-thirty p. m., when we were ready to start home, a Jack fish grabbed my bait (a sucker 12 inches long) and started off. I had a short pole with 200 yards of linen line on it, and you never saw such a time as I had with him. He towed the boat with three of us in it nearly out of sight of land, and it was dark when we landed him. I played with him for over an hour and a half and finally had to give my pole to Ed. He was about three feet long and weighed forty pounds. My arms are so sore I can hardly move from the strain. Just think of it, a fish pulling a heavy skiff with three of us in it for two miles. It took three of us 2½ hours to land him."

Can't you imagine you can see old Ben telling about this catch? We can.

Quick Lunch.

If you want a good lunch without waiting long for it drop in at J. E. Craven's and you will find everything desired for lunch. 3-2t

Switchman Loses Right Arm.

Tom Wilcox, a switchman in the L. & N. yards, in this city, was knocked under a car in the yards yesterday morning and had his right arm cut off. Wilcox was standing near the track and the fog was so dense that he could not see a cut of cars coming towards him and was struck by them knocking him under the forward car. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, at once for treatment.

Waltz—"Red Mill."
Two-step—"St. Louis Tickle."
Waltz—"Everyone is in Slumberland, But You and Me."

The Great Bourbon Fair.

The steady downpour of rain Tuesday cut down the attendance to the Bourbon Fair. It was impossible to have ring exhibits but the following premiums were tied, the cattle being shown on the lawn:

TUESDAY.

At 2 p. m., the contests for sheep took place on the lawn near the stock pens and for pure bred Southdowns resulted as follows:

Best Buck, two years old and over, Boyd Irvin, Danville, first; E. B. Drake & Son, Lexington, second.

Best Buck, 1-year-old and under two, Boyd Irvin, first; Letton Bros., second.

Best Buck, under one year, Abe Renick, Clark county, first; Boyd Irvin, second.

Best pair lambs, buck and ewe, Abe Renick, first; E. B. Drake second. Best ewe, 2 years old and over, Boyd Irvin, first; E. B. Drake & Sons, second. Best ewe, 1 year old and under 2, Boyd Irvin, first; E. B. Drake & Sons, second. Best ewe, under 1 year old, Abe Renick, first; E. B. Drake & Son, second. Sweepstakes, Best Buck any age, Abe Renick, first; E. B. Drake & Son, second. Best ewe any age, Boyd Irvin, first; E. B. Drake & Sons, second. Long wool sheep, Burgess Wood, of Muir, Ky., was the only entry in the various rings they being awarded the premiums.

The rain ceased at 2:30 o'clock, when the contests for the best Shorthorn cattle was held on the lawn resulting as follows: Best bull, 3 years old and over, Royal Sharron, owned by Abe Renick, first; Royal chief, owned by J. M. Hall, Paris, second. This ring was very close necessitating the calling in of Charles Marston as referee.

Best bull, 2 years old and under 3, first, Signet owned by Abe Renick; second, Knights Gloster, owned by same.

Bull, 1 year old and under 2, Royal Bow, owned by J. M. Hall, first one entry.

Bull, under 1 year five entries, A. P. Adair, Bourbon, first; Golden Royal, owned by J. M. Hall, second. Cow, 3 years old and over, Abe Renick, first; second, Innwood Duchess Peri, owned by J. M. Hall.

Cow, 2 years old and under 3, Eighth Mary of Innwood, owned by J. M. Hall, first; second, Seventh Rose of Niagara, owned by Abe Renick.

Cow, under 1 year, Tenth Mary of Innwood, owned by J. M. Hall, first; Innwood Wild Eyes, owned by J. M. Hall, second.

This completed the cattle exhibit for Tuesday the remainder of the rings going over till Wednesday.

WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday, the second day of the Bourbon Fair was just the opposite of Tuesday. A good crowd was on the grounds, taking in the midway and witnessing the excellent exhibits of fine stock. The rings were well filled and competition was spirited.

In the ring for the best mare or gelding any age were seven entries, among which were, The Chancellor, shown by T. H. Smiley, of Lexington; The Cardinal, shown by John Smiley, of Lexington; Mestioz, shown by T. C. Jefferson, of Lexington; Georgetown, shown by E. C. Ward, of Georgetown, and Dude, shown by Lew Chrisman, of Mt. Sterling. The ribbon was a hard one to tie and went to The Chancellor, first; Mestioz, second.

The next on the program was for three gaited saddle horses, mare or gelding 15.2 or under. First, Belle Cromwell, owned by C. F. Nagel, of Lexington; second, Bay Bird, owned by Nathan Bayless, Jr., of Paris.

The next ring was for roadsters, stallion any age, and brought out two entries, Sunland Chief, shown by J. Miller Ward, of Paris, and Bourbon Chief, shown by E. B. Allen, of North Middletown, Sunland Chief was awarded the honors.

The pony exhibits were the features of the afternoon, the ribbons being tied amid much enthusiasm. Every pony winning a ribbon was raised by L. C. Price, of Lexington. The ring for the best mare or gelding any age, showed ten entries, among which were Sallie Mc, shown by I. C. Smith, of Lexington; Dolly L., shown by L. C. Price, of Lexington; LaBelle, shown by Forrest Letton, of Paris, and Buss, shown by Hervey Kerr, of Lexington. The first ribbon went to Sallie Mc, while the red ribbon was tied to LaBelle.

Stallions to harness contained three entries, and was decided as follows: First, The Major, owned by L. C. Price, of Lexington; second, Billy Button, owned by Miss Annie Wilson, Paris.

For the best pony 3 years old and under 4, L. C. Price, of Lexington, was first and second with Girendea and Luzelle respectively.

Pony 2 years old and under 3, First, Cock Robin, shown by Kerr & Thomas, of Lexington; second, L. C. Price, of Lexington.

Pony 1 year old and under 2, Annie T., shown by J. A. Wilson, first; second, L. C. Price, of Lexington.
